GLOBAL DISCIPLESHIP SUMMIT PREPARATION

Within a few months we will host our first Global Discipleship Summit!

August 14-23, 2014

Preparation is paramount. There are over 40 people coming from 5 continents so far. Some have yet to obtain their visas from the US Embassy in their countries. And that’s not even counting the people from the USA.

What is God’s job? He calls us. What is our job? Respond to the call. What does that mean? Pray about what God is choosing you specifically to do as we host people from many nations to make disciples who make disciples.

Think about how you might enjoy being part of the body of people who will reach out. Check options below. We estimate the cost to be around $80,000, and many have already committed to this endeavor by sharing their time and resources.

- I will pray.
- I will drive.
- I will serve food.
- I will make food.
- I will make care pkg.
- I will coordinate tours.
- Other:

- I will host in home.
- I will help with food.

WHAT’S HAPPENING IN THE WORLD?

Our own Dr. Michael Guillen wrote this article for US News & World Report on May 14, 2015.

usnews.com/opinion/blogs/faith-matters/2015/05/14/decline-in-us-christians-doesnt-mean-god-is-losing-ground

Worldwide, the number of Christians has quadrupled in the past century and is still growing robustly – it is predicted to increase from the current 2.17 billion to 2.92 billion in 2050.

Christianity is also not just the largest but the most widespread religion on the planet. "So far-flung, in fact," said a 2011 Pew Research Center report on Global Christianity, "that no single continent or region can indisputably claim to be the center of global Christianity." Stark and Wang reported that even in China, as well as Hong Kong, Singapore, Taiwan and Japan, increasing numbers of people are choosing Christianity over Buddhism and definitely over Taoism. "The best data available," the authors said, "suggest that there are virtually no Taoists in China."

Michael Guillen is the host of the History Channel series “Where Did It Come From?” and producer of the award-winning family movie Little Red Wagon. For eight years he was an award-winning physics instructor at Harvard University. For 14 years he was the Emmy Award-winning science correspondent for ABC News. His new book on science and the Bible is being published by Harper Collins.
NEPAL?

Pradeep Jha is a pastor in Nepal with a young family. Last year he finished translating Discipleship Essentials into Nepalese in time for Greg Ogden to hold a week-long training in October.

Now, less than a year later, those in the capital and surrounding areas are coping with massive needs of thousands of people this month. Having endured two 7+ earthquakes near Kathmandu where they live, the earth shook, but his faith is unshaken.

Pray for his work as he helps the people in his country as they recover from the devastation. His house is unlivable at this time and his wife, and young children are staying with relatives in India.

He plans to come here in August and would like to bring three other pastors with him.

SAVE THE DATE

October 5-7, 2015

After the Global Discipleship Summit we want to support and encourage attendees as they begin discipleship triads and quads in their own communities. Coaching is one skill that we have found helpful to draw out what God has put in our hearts. As we surrender to the leading by God’s Holy Spirit working through us, we walk alongside others.

Last November Kevin Stebbings came from Singapore to train 14 of us, with 4 from three other states. He will be coming again this fall. Would you pray about this opportunity to reach out to others in this way? Not only will you be blessing someone, but the benefits you receive from the effect it will have on your own relationships is priceless.

The class is limited to no more than 40 participants. Read a description and testimonials here and sign up for any one in Bangkok, Malaysia, or Camarillo:
